

STATE OF NEW MEXICO
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
57TH LEGISLATURE —2026

NEW MEXICO EPSTEIN TRUTH COMMISSION
(Special Committee Established Pursuant to House Resolution 1)

LEGISLATIVE SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM

TO: Scott Cameron
OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL
NEW MEXICO PUBLIC REGULATION COMMISSION
Aspen Plaza Building
1596 Pacheco St.
Santa Fe, NM 87505

I. AUTHORITY

THIS SUBPOENA is issued by the New Mexico Epstein Truth Commission (“Commission”), a Special Committee of the New Mexico House of Representatives duly constituted by House Resolution 1, adopted unanimously by the House of Representatives of the State of New Mexico on February 16, 2026, 57th Legislature, Second Session (hereinafter “HR1”).

HR1 expressly vests the Commission with “all necessary powers and process, including the powers to conduct hearings, compel the attendance of witnesses, administer oaths and issue subpoenas.” HR1 further provides that after the legislature adjourns sine die, subpoenas “shall be enforced in any court with jurisdiction over the process and shall be in compliance with the applicable rules of the court.”

The Commission derives its investigative authority from Article 4, Section 2 of the Constitution of New Mexico, which vests the Legislature with “all powers necessary to the legislature of a free state,” expressly including “the indispensable power of inquiry, through which either chamber of the legislature may conduct investigative procedures to secure information necessary to legislate, to provide general oversight of the administration of government, the expenditure of public money and the use of public resources.” HR1, Whereas Clauses.

The Commission is further authorized by Article 4, Section 35 of the Constitution of New Mexico, which vests the House of Representatives with the sole power of impeachment, conferring a unique duty to oversee the conduct of state officers and compelling the investigation of allegations of misconduct.

The Commission’s investigative authority is further supported by controlling federal authority. The United States Supreme Court has held that the power of inquiry, with process to enforce it, is an essential auxiliary to the legislative function. McGrain v Daugherty, 273 U.S. 135, 174 (1927). A legislative body cannot legislate effectively without the means to obtain information from others. Id. at 175. The Supreme Court has recently reaffirmed this principle. Trump v Mazars USA, LLP, 591 U.S. 848, 862 (2020). A legislative subpoena is valid if the investigation has a legitimate legislative purpose and the specific inquiry is pertinent to that purpose. Watkins v United States, 354 U.S. 178, 187 (1957). The investigation need not produce legislation; it must deal with a subject on which legislation “could be had.” Eastland v United States Servicemen’s Fund, 421 U.S. 491, 506 (1975).

This subpoena satisfies the three-part test adopted by the New Mexico Supreme Court in In re Investigation No. 2 of the Governor’s Organized Crime Prevention Commission, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (Jaramillo), applying United States v Morton Salt Co., 338 U.S. 632, 652 (1950): (1) the inquiry is within the authority of the issuing body — HR1 is a House resolution adopted by unanimous vote through regular legislative procedures, vesting the Commission with subpoena power in plain terms; (2) the demand is not too indefinite — this subpoena identifies the respondent, the subject matter, and the documents required with specificity; and (3) the information sought is reasonably relevant — the records commanded bear directly on the legislative purposes stated in HR1, Sections A through E, including whether existing law failed to prevent the alleged conduct at Zorro Ranch and what legislative remedies are needed. The New Mexico Supreme Court held in Jaramillo that investigative subpoenas issued by a non-accusatory body are administrative in nature and do not require probable cause. Id. at 518, 577 P.2d at 416.

The Commission is charged with investigating Zorro Ranch and related allegations of criminal activity, public corruption, and the use of public money and resources, to determine whether legislative or other action is needed in accordance with the purposes set forth in HR1, Sections A through E.

II. COMMAND FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, pursuant to the lawful authority of the New Mexico Epstein Truth Commission and House Resolution 1, to produce before the Commission, through its designated counsel, true, complete, and legible copies of all documents, records, and electronically stored information described herein, no later than:

DATE OF COMPLIANCE: Tuesday, June 30, 2026

TIME: 4:00 p.m. MDT

PLACE: Fadduol, Cluff, Hardy & Conaway, P.C.

3301 San Mateo Blvd. NE

Albuquerque, New Mexico 87110

Telephone: 505-243-6045

Should electronic compliance be sought, please contact our office at the number above and email info@nmtruthcommission.com

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS SUBPOENA will require the Commission to seek judicial enforcement. Pursuant to HR1, 4:4-8, after the legislature adjourns sine die, process shall be enforced in any court with jurisdiction over the process in compliance with the applicable rules of that court. Enforcement proceeds by verified petition captioned: In re Investigation of Zorro Ranch Pursuant to House Resolution 1, 57th Legislature, State of New Mexico; State of New Mexico ex rel. Special Committee of the House of Representatives Investigating Zorro Ranch, Petitioner, v [Respondent]. The court will hold a show-cause hearing at which you may raise all defenses. Because you are a public officer, the Commission further reserves the right to seek a writ of mandamus under NMSA 1978, § 44-2-1 et seq. compelling performance of any nondiscretionary duty to produce public records or testify about official conduct.

III. DOCUMENTS AND RECORDS TO BE PRODUCED

You are commanded to produce ALL documents, records, data, and electronically stored information (“ESI”) in the custody, possession, or control of the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission (“NMPRC”), its Commissioner, Deputy Commissioners, legal counsel, agents, employees, predecessors-in-office, and contractors — relating to Jeffrey Epstein (also known as Jeffrey Edward Epstein), any entity in which he held a direct or indirect ownership or beneficial interest (including but not limited to Zorro Ranch LLC, Cypress Inc., Zorro Management LLC, Zorro Trust, any affiliated entities), and any property, real or personal, owned, leased, used, or otherwise associated with Epstein in New Mexico, HBRK Associates, and Richard Kahn for the period January 1, 1993 through the present. D. Destruction, Loss, or Alteration of Records

IV. DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. “Documents” and “Records”

As used herein, “documents” and “records” mean any recorded information in any format or medium, including but not limited to paper documents, emails, text messages, instant messages, voicemails, photographs, maps, GIS or spatial data files, audio or video recordings, databases, spreadsheets, and any other electronically stored information (“ESI”), regardless of whether stored on agency servers, personal devices, removable media, cloud platforms, or backup systems.

2. Format of Production

Produce all responsive records in their native electronic format, including all metadata, where available. Where records must be produced in paper form, provide true and legible copies. Do not produce documents in a format that degrades the quality or legibility of the original.

3. Withheld Records

If any responsive record is withheld in whole or in part on any claimed basis, you must provide a written privilege log identifying: (a) the specific record or category of records withheld; (b) the specific legal basis for withholding; (c) a description sufficient to assess the claim; and (d) the identity of all persons with knowledge of the withheld record. General or conclusory assertions of privilege are insufficient.

4. Continuing Obligation

This subpoena imposes a continuing obligation to supplement your production promptly upon discovering additional responsive records.

5. Relevant Period

“Relevant Period” means January 1, 1993, through the present, inclusive.

V. NOTICE OF PRESERVATION OBLIGATION

Upon receipt of this Subpoena, you and all officers, employees, agents, and contractors of the NMPRC are hereby formally notified that you must immediately preserve and protect from destruction, alteration, deletion, or loss any and all records potentially responsive to this Subpoena. This preservation obligation extends to all paper documents, ESI, backup tapes, email archives, text messages, instant messages, and any other recorded information, whether stored on NMPRC systems, personal devices, or third-party platforms.

The destruction, concealment, or material alteration of records subject to a legislative subpoena may constitute obstruction of a legislative proceeding and may expose responsible individuals and entities to criminal and civil liability under applicable New Mexico law, including but not limited to NMSA 1978, § 14-3-18 (unlawful destruction of public records) and the New Mexico Governmental Conduct Act, NMSA 1978, §§ 10-16-1 et seq. The Commission further reserves the right to seek preliminary injunctive relief under Rule 1-066 NMRA prohibiting the destruction, alteration, or concealment of any records subject to this Subpoena if there is reason to believe responsive records are at risk.

THIS SUBPOENA IS ISSUED this 10th day of June, 2026, by the New Mexico Epstein Truth Commission, acting pursuant to House Resolution 1, 57th Legislature, Second Session, State of New Mexico.

PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

Subject to Subparagraph (2) of Paragraph D below, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within fourteen (14) days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than fourteen (14) days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises or within fourteen (14) days after service of the subpoena may file a motion to quash the subpoena and serve the motion on all parties to the action. If an objection is served or a motion to quash is filed and served on the parties, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:

- (1) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (2) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to place more than one hundred miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except as provided below, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or
- (3) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
- (4) subjects a person to undue burden.

If a subpoena:

- (1) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (2) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- (3) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

- (1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.
- (2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.
