I. AUTHORITY

THIS SUBPOENA is issued by the New Mexico Epstein Truth Commission ("Commission"), a Special Committee of the New Mexico House of Representatives duly constituted by House Resolution 1, adopted unanimously by the House of Representatives of the State of New Mexico on February 16, 2026, 57th Legislature, Second Session (hereinafter "HR1").

HR1 expressly vests the Commission with "all necessary powers and process, including the powers to conduct hearings, compel the attendance of witnesses, administer oaths and issue subpoenas." HR1 further provides that after the legislature adjourns sine die, subpoenas "shall be enforced in any court with jurisdiction over the process and shall be in compliance with the applicable rules of the court."

The Commission derives its investigative authority from Article 4, Section 2 of the Constitution of New Mexico, which vests the Legislature with "all powers necessary to the legislature of a free state," expressly including "the indispensable power of inquiry, through which either chamber of the legislature may conduct investigative procedures to secure information necessary to legislate, to provide general oversight of the administration of government, the expenditure of public money and the use of public resources.” HR1, Whereas Clauses.

The Commission is further authorized by Article 4, Section 35 of the Constitution of New Mexico, which vests the House of Representatives with the sole power of impeachment, conferring a unique duty to oversee the conduct of state officers and compelling the investigation of allegations of misconduct.

The Commission’s investigative authority is further supported by controlling federal authority. The United States Supreme Court has held that the power of inquiry, with process to enforce it, is an essential auxiliary to the legislative function. McGrain v. Daugherty, 273 U.S. 135, 174 (1927). A legislative body cannot legislate effectively without the means to obtain information from others. Id. at 175. The Supreme Court has recently reaffirmed this principle. Trump v. Mazars USA, LLP, 591 U.S. 848, 862 (2020). A legislative subpoena is valid if the investigation has a legitimate legislative purpose and the specific inquiry is pertinent to that purpose. Watkins v. United States, 354 U.S. 178, 187 (1957). The investigation need not produce legislation; it must deal with a subject on which legislation “could be had.” Eastland v. United States Servicemen's Fund, 421 U.S. 491, 506 (1975).

This subpoena satisfies the three-part test adopted by the New Mexico Supreme Court in In re Investigation No. 2 of the Governor’s Organized Crime Prevention Commission, 1978-NMSC-022, 91 N.M. 516, 577 P.2d 414 (Jaramillo), applying United States v. Morton Salt Co., 338 U.S. 632, 652 (1950): (1) the inquiry is within the authority of the issuing body — HR1 is a House resolution adopted by unanimous vote through regular legislative procedures, vesting the Commission with subpoena power in plain terms; (2) the demand is not too indefinite — this subpoena identifies the respondent, the subject matter, and the documents required with specificity; and (3) the information sought is reasonably relevant — the records commanded bear directly on the legislative purposes stated in HR1, Sections A through E, including whether existing law failed to prevent the alleged conduct at Zorro Ranch and what legislative remedies are needed. The New Mexico Supreme Court held in Jaramillo that investigative subpoenas issued by a non-accusatory body are administrative in nature and do not require probable cause. Id. at 518, 577 P.2d at 416.

The Commission is charged with investigating Zorro Ranch and related allegations of criminal activity, public corruption, and the use of public money and resources, to determine whether legislative or other action is needed in accordance with the purposes set forth in HR1, Sections A through E.

II. COMMAND FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, pursuant to the lawful authority of the New Mexico Epstein Truth Commission and House Resolution 1, to produce before the Commission, through its designated counsel, true, complete, and legible copies of all documents, records, and electronically stored information described herein, no later than:

DATE OF COMPLIANCE: Tuesday, June 30, 2026

TIME: 4:00 p.m. MDT

PLACE: Fadduol, Cluff, Hardy & Conaway, P.C.
3301 San Mateo Blvd. NE

Albuquerque, New Mexico 87110
Telephone: 505-243-6045

Should electronic compliance be sought, please contact our office at the number above and email info@nmtruthcommission.com

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS SUBPOENA will require the Commission to seek judicial enforcement. Pursuant to HR1, 4:4-8, after the legislature adjourns sine die, process shall be enforced in any court with jurisdiction over the process in compliance with the applicable rules of that court. Enforcement proceeds by verified petition captioned: In re Investigation of Zorro Ranch Pursuant to House Resolution 1, 57th Legislature, State of New Mexico; State of New Mexico ex rel. Special Committee of the House of Representatives Investigating Zorro Ranch, Petitioner, v. [Respondent]. The court will hold a show-cause hearing at which you may raise all defenses. Because you are a public officer, the Commission further reserves the right to seek a writ of mandamus under NMSA 1978, § 44-2-1 et seq. compelling performance of any nondiscretionary duty to produce public records or testify about official conduct.

- (1) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (2) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to place more than one hundred miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except as provided below, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or
