

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

KATIE PHANG,

Plaintiff,

v.

TODD BLANCHE,
in his official capacity as Acting Attorney
General of the United States,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 26-1417 (EGS)

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO ENFORCE

In consideration of Plaintiff's Motion to Enforce and Defendant's Response, It is hereby:

ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion to Enforce is GRANTED;

ORDERED that Defendant will be fined $1,000 per day until:

- (1) He reviews and produces to the public all foreign-language documents required to be produced pursuant to the Epstein Files Transparency Act (the "Epstein Act"), with appropriate redactions to protect victims' information; and
- (2) He produces and publishes in the Federal Register a complete redaction log of all individual redactions in documents produced pursuant to the Epstein Act;

ORDERED that Defendant produce those documents that Defendant concedes contain no victim information (EFTA00749245, EFTA00628112);

ORDERED that Defendant submit for in camera review those documents that Defendant claims do contain victim information (EFTA01187999, EFTA01930501, EFTA01928255, EFTA02648868, EFTA02504630, and EFTA01022356 and EFTA00038227), including EFTA00194840, which Defendant claims is a near-duplicate of EFTA01703108;

ORDERED that Defendant produce the underlying FBI interview notes that formed the basis for the FD-302 interview reports bearing Bates numbers EFTA01245620, EFTA02858481, EFTA02858491, and EFTA02858495, with appropriate redactions to protect victims' information; and ORDERED that, within 14 days of this Order, Defendant produce the administrative record upon which Defendant relied in complying with the Epstein Files Transparency Act.

SO ORDERED.
